What data will we collect about you?

To assist us in running the SmartCard travel programme, we collect data about pupils and their parents.

We collect:

- The name of the pupil applying for the card
- Their address
- The name of the school they go to
- A photo of them

We also collect:

What will we use your data for?

West Berkshire Council uses the data that it collects about pupils to identify them when they use the service to make sure they are entitled to do so. As the SmartCard is for travel on local bus services it might be inspected, for instance, when a pupil boards the bus with the card.

Local bus companies use your data to monitor and report on how much the SmartCard service is used and on which routes.

Who will see your data?

West Berkshire Council's Community Transport Officer and the rest of the West Berkshire Council Transport team in the Highways Service.

Your data will also be seen by local bus operators, including:

- Reading Transport Limited (Reading Buses) who issue the cards

and
- Stagecoach Bus UK
