The Data Protection Officer

The Data Protection Officer for West Berkshire Council is:

James Gore AMBCS BA

Contact details can be found here: <http://info.westberks.gov.uk/dpofficer>

What data will we collect about you?

In order to process your request for information, we will need to collect:

- Your name or the name of your organisation
- Your contact details (email, telephone number, postal address)
- Details of your request for information

What will we use your data for?

We only use the data you give us to provide a response to your request, or to carry out a review of the response we've given if you are dissatisfied.

Who will see your data?

So that the Council can respond to your request, it will often be necessary to share the details you give us with various services that might hold information that will help us to provide an answer.

Which services these might be will depend on the nature of the information you've asked us for.

If your request is escalated to the Information Commissioner's Office then it will be necessary for the Council to share details of your request with them if they ask us to.

Why do we do this?

We are required to provide the means to make requests about information held by West Berkshire Council as a public authority by the relevant legislation (namely the Freedom of Information Act 2000 and the Environmental Information Regulations 2004).

You don't have to provide us with the data indicated, but if you do not do so, we will not be able to respond to your request. There's more on your rights below (see "Your Rights").

How long will your data will be kept?

Your data will not be kept any longer than necessary. You can check how long the organisation will keep each type of data against West Berkshire Council's retention schedule (www.westberks.gov.uk/retention).

How is your data stored and processed?

Your data will be held on electronic databases and networked storage with restricted access and will be protected from unauthorised access using up-to-date technical and organisational security measures.

Transfer overseas

Your data will not be stored or sent outside of the UK.

Your rights

You have a number of rights when it comes to the data we hold about you. These are detailed on our request form (www.westberks.gov.uk/dprequest) that also allows you to make a request for us to take action about something.

Complaints

If you've already told us we need to do something, but we haven't responded in a way you're satisfied with, you can complain to the Information Commissioner's Office (the ICO). It's easiest to do this online via the ICO website (<https://ico.org.uk/concerns/handling/>), but you can also do so in writing to:

The Information Commissioner's Office
Wycliffe House
Water Lane
Wilmslow
