The Data Protection Officer

The Data Protection Officer for West Berkshire Council is:

James Gore AMBCS BA

Contact details can be found here: <http://info.westberks.gov.uk/dpofficer>

What data will we collect about you?

Your employer will collect some basic information such as your name and email address. You will then be sent a link by your employer which will invite you to complete an online application form in order to request the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) check.

Your employer will also require you to provide them with original documentation so they can verify your identity as part of the process. The documentation will vary depending on the employee. Information from these documents will be entered into the Capita e-bulk system and then destroyed.

What will we use your data for?

Your data will be used to complete the process of a Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) check at the required level. Information will only be shared with online processing service (Capita) and the DBS for vetting purposes and not any other third party organisations.

Who will see your data?

- Your employer
- West Berkshire Council and Capita as a data processors on behalf of your employer
- The Disclosure and Barring Service.

Your right to refuse

We are legally processing your data under the requirements of the:

- Disclosure and Barring service DBS guidance
- Safeguarding of Vulnerable Groups Act 2006
- Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974
- Protection of Freedoms Act 2012
- Keeping Children Safe in Education 2016

If your job role requires a DBS check, there is no right to refusal of this processing if you wish to be employed. If you object to the processing, you will not be able to be employed as completing the check needs to be completed before a job offer is made. There's more on your rights below (see "Your Rights").

How long will your data be kept?

Your data will not be kept any longer than necessary. You can check how long the organisation will keep each type of data against West Berkshire Council's retention schedule (www.westberks.gov.uk/retention).

How is your data stored and processed?

Your data will be held on Capita's online DBS check system. You can read more about how this happens via the Privacy Policies provided by the DBS here: <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/dbs-privacy-policies>

Transfer overseas

Your data will not be stored or sent outside of the UK.

Your rights

You have a number of rights when it comes to the data we hold about you. These are detailed on our request form (www.westberks.gov.uk/dprequest) that also allows you to make a request for us to take action about something.

Complaints

If you've already told us we need to do something, but we haven't responded in a way you're satisfied with, you can complain to the Information Commissioner's Office (the ICO). It's easiest to do this online via the ICO website (<https://ico.org.uk/concerns/handling/>), but you can also do so in writing to:
