

Covid response Community Group of the Year

This award recognises and rewards a community group (based within West Berkshire) which has made an exceptional contribution to the district of West Berkshire and its residents in response to the Covid pandemic. The not-for-profit work will have involved local people, whilst promoting equality, inclusion and working together. Small or large, all groups will be considered in relation to their value to the local community at this challenging time.

What could it include?

Examples may include:

- (a) Community organising
- (b) Food delivery
- (c) Keeping in touch with those shielding/isolating
- (d) Online groups/clubs
- (e) Resident or Neighbourhood Action groups
- (f) Community transport groups

The above examples are by no means exhaustive, as your nominated group may be involved in different activities.

The judging panel will be looking for evidence of the following in the application:

- (a) Demonstration of outstanding commitment to their unpaid activity and role.
- (b) Local people actively involved in the project or work.
- (c) A record of positive results and achievements.
- (d) The potential for the project or work to be replicated in other communities.
- (e) The promotion of working together.

The Community Group must be based in West Berkshire
