

Covid response Volunteer of the Year

This award recognises and awards an individual volunteer who has made an outstanding contribution to the district of West Berkshire and its residents during the covid pandemic. The person will have demonstrated exceptional commitment to an unpaid activity.

What could it include?

Examples may include:

- (a) starting up or running a local community project event related to the Covid pandemic/lockdown.
- (b) increasing charitable fundraising within a community related to Covid.
- (c) extensive involvement in a successful voluntary or not-for-profit project or group relate to supporting people during the pandemic.
- (d) volunteering which has had an exceptional positive influence on an individual or group during the pandemic.

The above examples are by no means exhaustive, as the nominee may be involved in other activities.

The judging panel will be looking for evidence of the following in the application. Please ensure that you include everything that could apply:

- (a) Demonstration of outstanding commitment to their unpaid activity and role.
- (b) Local people actively involved in the project or work.
- (c) A record of positive results and achievements.
- (d) The promotion of working together.

The nominee must live within West Berkshire.